BRISTOL, VA.-TENN., Nov. 11.

-King College, the "Tennessee Tornado," added another victory to its string this afternoon, when it defeated Milligan College, 54 to 0, bringing its total 419 points for the season to date.

Milligan made only three first downs during the game, and at no time threatened the Tornado goal, in the last quarter, however, first-string men who had been relieved by substitutes, were thrown back into the contest when Milligan showed signs of a rally.

Several of Kaysa's touchdowns were the results of long runs through a broken field.
